rayyan.scale@gmail.com | rayyandev.tech | github.com/mrayyan911

linkedin.com/in/muhammadraysan911

Full-stack developer building web applications, developer tools, and AI systems. Experience with React, Next.js, Node.js, Python APIs, PostgreSQL, and containerized deployments.

EXPERIENCE

Journal Post Group | Full Stack Developer

July 2026 - Present | Lahore

Building JournalPost.com, a viral media platform. Developing the Next.js frontend, using Payload CMS for editorial content management, and Supabase Postgres for the database. Focused on fast-loading, shareable content and a flexible publishing workflow.

Voliom | AI/ML Intern

June 2025 - September 2025 | Rawalpindi

Developed a computer vision platform backend with FastAPI and PostgreSQL under senior-developer mentorship. Implemented Firebase authentication, email verification, JWT security, dataset management, and image storage. Integrated Vertex AI for text-to-image generation and image-to-text analysis; used SQLAlchemy and Docker.

SELECTED PROJECTS

JournalPost.com | Next.js, Payload CMS, Supabase Postgres

Current professional project: a viral media platform connecting the reader experience, editorial workflow, and database.

Usage Pill | JavaScript, Electron, Node.js

Always-on-top desktop overlay for Claude Code and Codex usage. Supports agent activity, reset times, multi-display positioning, keyboard access, and automatic session monitoring on Windows.

Imagenix | Next.js, NestJS, FastAPI, PyTorch

Image dataset platform for annotation, generative augmentation, and export. Integrates Grounding DINO, Stable Diffusion, and ControlNet; uses PostgreSQL, Redis, BullMQ, and MinIO across a three-service monorepo.
